TOPIC Neutrandenture Trailenhagen Airfield EVALUATION see below PLACE OBTAINED 25X1X 25X1A 25X1A 25X1A 25X1A 25X1B 2. On 24 August. There was intensive air sctivity by twin-engine including local flights and flights to areas southwest of the fill 12 to 14 August. There was intensive air sctivity by twin-engine including local flights and flights to areas southwest of the fill 17 to 23 August. There was little air activity by twin-engine make local visitility was good. 25X1B 2. On 24 August. There was little air activity by twin-engine make local visitility was cordered to imrease daily bread deliveries from 160 k after 1 September in accordance with previous deliveries. 25X1X 3. Letween 13 and 16 August, 5 11-12s were daily counted in front on the airfield had not been reoccupied. On 23 August, no air activity ensured at the field. The status of occupation was unchanged. On 25 August, no air activity ensured at the field. The status of occupation was unchanged. On 25 August, no air activity ensured at the field. The status of occupation was unchanged. On 25 August, no air activity or activity of the field. The five twin-engine monoplenes, problems at the field. The status of occupation was unchanged or Newtrandenburg airfield. The five twin-engine monoplenes, problems at the field, have been stationed there eince mid-May 1 creased quantity of bread which was to be required after 1 September and the problems and the pro	9-0 128
EVALUATION see below PLACE OBTAINED EVALUATION see below PLACE OBTAINED EVALUATION See below PLACE OBTAINED EVALUATION PREPARED 22 Sentembs REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS 25X1X 25X1B 26X1A 26X1B 26X1A 26X1A 25X1B 26X1A 26X1B 26X1A 26X1A 26X1A 26X1A 26X1A 26X1A 25X1B 26X1A 26X1B 26X1A	men statutes successor data ex ;
DATE OF CONTE DATE OF CONTENDED DA	AMERICAN TO A STATE AND A STATE OF THE STATE OF T
DATE OF CONTE DATE OBTAINED REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS 25X1X 25	- 25X1A
DATE OBTAINED REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. 4 TYPE) REMARKS 25X1X 25X1C 25X
REMARKS 25X1X 25X1X 25X1X 1. The following air activity and aircraft were observed at Neubran Trollenhagen airfield between 31 July and 23 August 1953: 31 July: About 10 p.m., a twin-engine monoplane with its positi turning approached from the muthwest and landed at the field. 2 August. At 6 a.m., a twin-engine monoplane took off, toward twest and landed again at 10 a.m. 4 August. Throughout the day, twin-engine monoplanes made local Visitility was good. 6 to 8 August. Pig-15s were repeatedly seen aloft over the field. 17 to 23 August. There was intensive air activity by twin-engin including local flights and flights to areas southwest of the field. 2 August. There was little air activity by twin-engine monoplanes are seen to be after 1 September in accordance with previous deliveries. 5X1X 3. Fetween 13 and 16 August, 5 11-12s were daily counted in front of The airfield had not been reoccupied. On 23 August, no air activity observed at the field. The status of occupation was unchanged. 5X1X Comment. The present report does not indicate any change of Neutrandenburg airfield. The five twin-engine monoplanes, prodeserved at the field, have been stationed there since mid-May 1 creased quantity of bread which was to be required after 1 September treated the retrieved the freed which was to be required after 1 September to the installation of the fighter revivenees to the the treatember back to the installation of the fighter revivenees the test of the installation of the fighter revivenees the test of the installation of the fighter revivenees the cast the retreated there reviewed to the installation of the fighter revivenees the test of the installation of the fighter revivenees the cast the retreated the revenees to the installation of the fighter revivenees the cast to the installation of the fighter revivenees the cast to the installation of the fighter revivenees the cast to the installation of the fighter revivenees the cast to the installation of the fighter of the cast the revenees the cast to	parameter or agreement of the control of the contro
PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) REMARKS 25X1X 1. The following air activity and aircraft were observed at Neubran Trollenhagen airfield between 31 July and 22 August 1953: 31 July About 10 p.m., a twin-engine monoplane with its positivening approached from the southwest and landed at the field. 3 August At 6 a.m., a twin-engine monoplane took off, toward twest and landed again at 10 a.m. 4 August Throughout the day, twin-engine monoplanes made local Visitility was good. 6 to 8 August Mig-15s were repeatedly seen aloft over the field 12 to 14 August. There was intensive air activity by twin-engine including local flights and flights to areas southwest of the field. 17 to 23 August There was little air activity by twin-engine monoplanes are seasy as ordered to imrease daily bread deliveries from 160 k after 1 September in accordance with previous deliveries. 5X1X 3. Fetween 13 and 16 August, 5 11-12s were daily counted in front on the airfield had not been reoccupied. On 23 August, no air activity and the field. The status of occupation was unchanged. 5X1 Comment The present report does not indicate any change of Neutrandenburg airfield. The five twin-engine monoplanes, proceed at the field, have been stationed there since mid-May 1 creased quantity of tread which was to be required after 1 September that the treatmenter back to the installation of the fighter revive at the retreaters be act to the installation of the fighter revive at the retreaters be act to the installation of the fighter revive act the retreaters be act to the installation of the fighter revive.	er 1953
REMARKS 1. The following air activity and aircraft were observed at Neubran Trollenhagen airfield between 31 July and 23 August 1953: 31 July. About 10 pomo, a twin-engine monoplane with its posititurning approached from the southwest and landed at the field. 2 August. At 6 a.ma. a twin-engine monoplane took off, toward twest and landed again at 10 a.m. 4 August. Throughout the day, twin-engine monoplanes made local Visitility was good. 6 to 8 August. Fig-15s were repeatedly seen aloft over the field. 12 to 14 August. There was intensive air activity by twin-enging including local flights and flights to areas southwest of the field. To 23 August. There was little air activity by twin-engine measurements. There was little air activity by twin-engine measurements. There was contained a bakery to the bakery was ordered to im rease daily bread deliveries from 160 k after 1 September in accordance with previous deliveries. 5X1X 3. Fetween 13 and 16 August, 5 11-12s were daily counted in front of the airfield had not been recocupied. On 23 August, no air activity served at the field. The status of occupation was unchanged. 5X1 Comments. The present report does not indicate any change of Neubrandenburg airfield. The five twin-engine monoplanes, probserved at the field, have been stationed there since mid-May 1 creased quantity of bread which was to be required after 1 September the field, have been stationed there since mid-May 1 creased quantity of bread which was to be required after 1 September and the field, have been stationed there since mid-May 1 creased quantity of bread which was to be required after 1 September and the field, have been stationed there since mid-May 1 creased quantity of bread which was to be required after 1 September and the field which was to be required after 1 September and the field which was to be required after 1 September and the field which was to be required after 1 September and the field which was to be required after 1 September and the field which was to be required a	Additional reference in the contract of the co
25X1X 1. The following air activity and aircraft were observed at Neubran Trollenhagen airfield between 31 July and 23 August 1953: 31 July. About 10 p.m., a twin-engine monoplane with its positi turning approached from the southwest and landed at the field. 3 August. At 6 a.m., a twin-engine monoplane took off, toward twest and landed again at 10 a.m. 4 August. Throughout the day, twin-engine monoplanes made local Visitility was good. 5 to 8 August. Pig-15s were repeatedly seen aloft over the fiel 12 to 14 August. There was intensive air activity by twin-engin including local flights and flights to areas southwest of the fi 17 to 23 August. There was little air activity by twin-engine monoplane was ordered to im rease daily bread deliveries from 160 k after 1 September in accordance with previous deliveries. 5X1X 3. Fetween 13 and 16 August, 5 11-12s were daily counted in front of the airfield had not been reoccupied. On 23 August, no air activity served at the field. The status of occupation was unchanged. 6X1 Comment. The present report does not indicate any change of Neutrandenburg airfield. The five twin-engine monoplanes, probserved at the field, have been stationed there since mid-May 1' creased quantity of bread which was to be required after 1 September the retransfer back to the installation of the fighter residents.
The following air activity and aircraft were observed at Neubran Trollenhagen airfield between 31 July and 23 August 1953: 31 July About 10 p.m., a twin-engine monoplane with its positil turning approached from the southwest and landed at the field. 3 August At 6 a, m., a twin-engine monoplane took off, toward twest and landed again at 10 a, m. 4 August Throughout the day, twin-engine monoplanes made local Visitility was good. 6 to 8 August Fig-15s were repeatedly seen aloft over the field 12 to 14 August. There was intensive air activity by twin-engin including local flights and flights to areas southwest of the fi 17 to 23 August. There was little air activity by twin-engine measurements are activity by twin-engine measurements. 25X1B 10 no 24 August, There was little air activity by twin-engine measurements are activity by twin-engine measurements. 25X1B 10 no 24 August, There was little air activity by twin-engine measurements are activity by twin-engine measurements. 3. Fetween 13 and 16 August, 5 11-12s were daily counted in front of the airfield had not been reoccupied. On 23 August, no air activity activity and the field. The status of occupation was unchanged. 5X1 10 Comment. The present report does not indicate any change of Neutrandenburg airfield. The five twin-engine monoplanes, probserved at the field, have been stationed there since mid-May 10 creased quantity of bread which was to be required after 1 September to the retransfer back to the installation of the firther regine cate the retransfer back to the installation of the firther regine cate the retransfer back to the installation of the firther regine cate the retransfer back to the installation of the firther regine cate the retransfer back to the installation of the firther regine cate the retransfer back to the installation of the firther regine cate the retransfer back to the installation of the firther regine cate the retransfer back to the installation of the firther and the regine cate the retransfer back to the firther and	in the state of th
The following air activity and aircraft were observed at Neubran Trollenhagen airfield between 31 July and 23 August 1953: 31 July About 10 p.m., a twin-engine monoplane with its positil turning approached from the southwest and landed at the field. 3 August At 6 a, m., a twin-engine monoplane took off, toward twest and landed again at 10 a, m. 4 August Throughout the day, twin-engine monoplanes made local Visitility was good. 6 to 8 August Fig-15s were repeatedly seen aloft over the field 12 to 14 August. There was intensive air activity by twin-engin including local flights and flights to areas southwest of the fi 17 to 23 August. There was little air activity by twin-engine measurements are activity by twin-engine measurements. 25X1B 10 no 24 August, There was little air activity by twin-engine measurements are activity by twin-engine measurements. 25X1B 10 no 24 August, There was little air activity by twin-engine measurements are activity by twin-engine measurements. 3. Fetween 13 and 16 August, 5 11-12s were daily counted in front of the airfield had not been reoccupied. On 23 August, no air activity activity and the field. The status of occupation was unchanged. 5X1 10 Comment. The present report does not indicate any change of Neutrandenburg airfield. The five twin-engine monoplanes, probserved at the field, have been stationed there since mid-May 10 creased quantity of bread which was to be required after 1 September to the retransfer back to the installation of the firther regine cate the retransfer back to the installation of the firther regine cate the retransfer back to the installation of the firther regine cate the retransfer back to the installation of the firther regine cate the retransfer back to the installation of the firther regine cate the retransfer back to the installation of the firther regine cate the retransfer back to the installation of the firther regine cate the retransfer back to the installation of the firther and the regine cate the retransfer back to the firther and
The following air activity and aircraft were observed at Neubran Trollenhagen airfield between 31 July and 23 August 1953: 31 July About 10 p.m., a twin-engine monoplane with its positil turning approached from the southwest and landed at the field. 3 August At 6 a, m., a twin-engine monoplane took off, toward twest and landed again at 10 a, m. 4 August Throughout the day, twin-engine monoplanes made local Visitility was good. 6 to 8 August Fig-15s were repeatedly seen aloft over the field 12 to 14 August. There was intensive air activity by twin-engin including local flights and flights to areas southwest of the fi 17 to 23 August. There was little air activity by twin-engine measurements are activity by twin-engine measurements. 25X1B 10 no 24 August, There was little air activity by twin-engine measurements are activity by twin-engine measurements. 25X1B 10 no 24 August, There was little air activity by twin-engine measurements are activity by twin-engine measurements. 3. Fetween 13 and 16 August, 5 11-12s were daily counted in front of the airfield had not been reoccupied. On 23 August, no air activity activity and the field. The status of occupation was unchanged. 5X1 10 Comment. The present report does not indicate any change of Neutrandenburg airfield. The five twin-engine monoplanes, probserved at the field, have been stationed there since mid-May 10 creased quantity of bread which was to be required after 1 September to the retransfer back to the installation of the firther regine cate the retransfer back to the installation of the firther regine cate the retransfer back to the installation of the firther regine cate the retransfer back to the installation of the firther regine cate the retransfer back to the installation of the firther regine cate the retransfer back to the installation of the firther regine cate the retransfer back to the installation of the firther regine cate the retransfer back to the installation of the firther and the regine cate the retransfer back to the firther and	(基명 (전환 1984) - 전급()
The following air activity and aircraft were observed at Neubran Trollenhagen airfield between 31 July and 23 August 1953: 31 July. About 10 p.m., a twin-engine monoplane with its positi burning approached from the southwest and landed at the field. 3 August. At 6 a,m., a twin-engine monoplane took off, toward twest and landed again at 10 a.m. 4 August. Throughout the day, twin-engine monoplanes made local Visitility was good. 5 to 8 August. Mig-15s were repeatedly seen aloft over the field. 12 to 14 August. There was intensive air activity by twin-engine including local flights and flights to areas southwest of the field. 17 to 23 August. There was little air activity by twin-engine monoplanes are seen as a southwest of the field. The same activity by twin-engine monoplanes from 160 k after 1 September in accordance with previous deliveries. 5X1X 3. Fetween 13 and 16 August, 5 Il-12s were daily counted in front of the airfield had not been reoccupied. On 23 August, no air activity served at the field. The status of occupation was unchanged. 5X1 Comment. The present report does not indicate any change of Neubrandenburg airfield. The five twin-engine monoplanes, probserved at the field, have been stationed there since mid-May is creased quantity of bread which was to be required after 1 September at the retransfer back to the installation of the fielder regine cate the retransfer back to the installation of the fielder regine.	2
The following air activity and aircraft were observed at Neubran Trollenhagen airfield between 31 July and 23 August 1953: 31 July. About 10 p.m., a twin-engine monoplane with its positi turning approached from the southwest and landed at the field. 3 August. At 6 a,m., a twin-engine monoplane took off, toward twest and landed again at 10 a.m. 4 August. Throughout the day, twin-engine monoplanes made local visitility was good. 6 to 8 August. Mig-15s were repeatedly seen aloft over the fiel 12 to 14 August. There was intensive air activity by twin-engin including local flights and flights to areas southwest of the fi 17 to 23 August. There was little air activity by twin-engine m 25X1B 2. On 24 August. There was little air activity by twin-engine m 25X1B 3. Fetween 13 and 16 August, 5 Il-12s were daily counted in front of the airfield had not been reoccupied. On 23 August, no air activity observed at the field. The status of occupation was unchanged. 5X1 Comment. The present report does not indicate any change of Neutrandenburg airfield. The five twin-engine monoplanes, probserved at the field, have been stationed there since mid-May is creased quantity of bread which was to be required after 1 September back to the installation of the fielder regine cate the retransfer back to the installation of the fielder regine cate the retransfer back to the installation of the fielder regine.	erin Serie e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e
August. At 6 a.m., a twin-engine monoplane took off, toward twest and landed again at 10 a.m. 4 August. Throughout the day, twin-engine monoplanes made local Visitility was good. 6 to 8 August. Fig-15s were repeatedly seen aloft over the fiel 12 to 14 August. There was intensive air activity by twin-engine including local flights and flights to areas southwest of the fi 17 to 23 August. There was little air activity by twin-engine meluding local flights and flights to areas southwest of the fi 17 to 23 August. There was little air activity by twin-engine meluding local flights and flights to areas deliveries from 160 k after 1 September in accordance with previous deliveries. 5X1X 3. Fetween 13 and 16 August, 5 Il-12s were daily counted in front on the airfield had not been reoccupied. On 23 August, no air activity observed at the field. The status of occupation was unchanged. 5X1 Comment. The present report does not indicate any change of Neubrandenburg airfield. The five twin-engine monoplanes, probserved at the field, have been stationed there since mid-May it creased quantity of bread which was to be required after 1 September after the retransfer back to the installation of the fighter regine cate the retransfer back to the installation of the fighter regine cate the retransfer back to the installation of the fighter regine cate the retransfer back to the installation of the fighter regine.	ndenburg-
4 August. Throughout the day, twin-engine monoplanes made local Visitility was good. 6 to 8 August. MiG-15s were repeatedly seen aloft over the fiel 12 to 14 August. There was intensive air activity by twin-engin including local flights and flights to areas southwest of the fi 17 to 23 August. There was little air activity by twin-engine m 25X1B 2. On 24 August, there was little air activity by twin-engine m 25X1B 3. Fetween 13 and 16 August, 5 Il-12s were daily counted in front on the airfield had not been reoccupied. On 23 August, no air activity at the field. The status of occupation was unchanged. Comment. The present report does not indicate any change of Neutrandenburg airfield. The five twin-engine monoplanes, probserved at the field, have been stationed there since mid-May is creased quantity of bread which was to be required after 1 September to the retransfer back to the installation of the fighter regime	ion lights
6 to 8 August. MiG-15s were repeatedly seen aloft over the fiel 12 to 14 August. There was intensive air activity by twin-engin including local flights and flights to areas southwest of the fi 17 to 23 /ugust. There was little air activity by twin-engine m 25X1B 2. On 24 August, tread from a bakery to the bakery was ordered to im rease daily bread deliveries from 160 k after 1 September in accordance with previous deliveries. 3. Fetween 13 and 16 August, 5 Il-12s were daily counted in front on the airfield had not been reoccupied. On 23 August, no air activity of served at the field. The status of occupation was unchanged of Neutrandenburg airfield. The five twin-engine monoplanes, probserved at the field, have been stationed there since mid-May 10 creased quantity of bread which was to be required after 1 September regime the retransfer back to the installation of the fighter regime.	the south-
12 to 14 August. There was intensive air activity by twin-engin including local flights and flights to areas southwest of the fi 17 to 23 August. There was little air activity by twin-engine m 25X1B 2. On 24 August,	l flights.
including local flights and flights to areas southwest of the fi 17 to 23 August. There was little air activity by twin-engine m 25X1B 2. On 24 August, tread from a takery to the bakery was ordered to imprease daily bread deliveries from 160 k after 1 September in accordance with previous deliveries. 3. Fetween 13 and 16 August, 5 Il-12s were daily counted in front on The airfield had not been reoccupied. On 23 August, no air activities observed at the field. The status of occupation was unchanged of Neubrandenburg airfield. The five twin-engine monoplanes, processed quantity of bread which was to be required after 1 September to back to the installation of the fighter region.	ld.
25X1B 2. On 24 August,	ne monoplanes,
2. On 24 August,	nonoplanes.
3. Fetween 13 and 16 August, 5 Il-12s were daily counted in front of The airfield had not been reoccupied. On 23 August, no air actively observed at the field. The status of occupation was unchanged. Comment. The present report does not indicate any change of Neubrandenburg airfield. The five twin-engine monoplanes, processed at the field, have been stationed there since mid-May 1st creased quantity of bread which was to be required after 1 September 25 of the retransfer back to the installation of the fighter regions.	the field. The cg to 600 kg
The airfield had not been reoccupied. On 23 August, no air actions observed at the field. The status of occupation was unchanged. Comment. The present report does not indicate any change of Neubrandenburg airfield. The five twin-engine monoplanes, probserved at the field, have been stationed there since mid-May 1 creased quantity of bread which was to be required after 1 September 2 at the retransfer back to the installation of the fighter regions. of Neutrandenburg airfield. The five twin-engine monoplanes, probserved at the field, have been stationed there since mid-May 1st creased quantity of bread which was to be required after 1 September 2 the retransfer back to the installation of the fighter region	of the hangars. vity was rotatly I1-12s, 1953. The in-